On the first floor you´ll find the living room and a bedroom. This apartment still has the authentic thick walls, with authentic window frames and wooden shutters in front of the windows. The beautiful high ceilings, wooden flooring and romantic fireplace complete this unique property.

On the second floor we find another bedroom and bathroom with direct access to the amazing rooftop terrace. From here you enjoy the most unique view of the city, with views on the river and the ancient roman bridge.

The unique outdoor dark red color is a reference to the color of the castle on top of the hill. This is a special color that is unique to this city, and you will see other historical buildings in the same shade. The city hall of Silves is investing heavily in city renewal, which the new owner can profit from. With a good project and plans, you can even get subsidies for improvements and preservation of historical buildings.

Silves is a very popular tourist destination known for its rich history and stunning medieval castle, attracting thousands of visitors every summer. Owning this mixed-purpose historical building gives you the opportunity to capitalize on this thriving market and turn your investment into a successful business venture.
